Hugs, Fumes and Giggles

The one and only Alphabet of Friendship

128 pages, Leykam, 22 €

17 x 21,5 cm, February 2025

Friends laugh, cry and argue with each other, they share their most secret secrets, comfort and hug each other - and sometimes they just get up to mischief. But how do you make friends, how do you show that you like each other, and what if you really get into each other's hair? From „B“ for being there to „G“ for gaming - this book combines stories with practical tips. Every friendship is different, every relationship unique - and that's exactly what makes them so special.

A Tree rarely grows alone

What you have always wanted to know about trees

152 Pages, Leykam, 22 €

20,5 x 27,5 cm, October 2022

A playful nonfiction book with word and picture humor about trees and their inhabitants

What do trees talk about when they're by themselves? Who does actually live in and on a tree? And what, for heaven's sake, is a root telephone? Trees are the oldest beings on our planet, and without them, we couldn't live. Trees are homes and sources of healing. They cool and calm us, and yet we don't always treat them with care. With this humorous book, you will learn what you can do for trees, and how to write a tree poem. A book to spark your imagination, a guaranteed reading adventure for young and old alike!

From seagrass, field hamsters to the dragonfly: plants and animals tell their stories. An unusual journey into the habitats of our species

The earth is colorful and alive, scurrying and proliferating everywhere. Ants, luminous shrimp, plankton and dragonflies, turtles, beavers and kelp - they all live among us. Some are loners, others roam in packs, they live in meadows, in the seas and rivers, bury themselves deep in the earth or fly high up through the air. Together with robot Robi, Andrea Grill listens to what the animals and plants tell her about everyday life. An unforgettable journey right into the colorful world of biodiversity!

Snow White, Instagrimm and casting show

Sara, aka Snow White, is sent to a casting show by her stepmother, but she doesn't want to win under any circumstances. A wonderfully funny non-fairy tale that doesn't give a damn about beauty ideals and celebrates friendship instead.

A rather different Little Red Riding Hood - she saves the forest AND the wolf. An original remake with activities, including a wolf quiz and riddles

Little Red Riding Hood is annoyed by the adults' fairy tales, which is why this story begins with «Today» instead of «Once upon a time.» The premise is familiar: Red is supposed to go into the forest to take a cake to her grandmother. But everything else is different: Red is self-confident and cheeky. Her grandmother isn't sick. The woods are full of plastic waste. And the wolf? He is scared of humans and initially doesn't want to have anything to do with Red.

Once upon a time AGAIN? Jessica King doesn't want to hear any more fairy tales. She doesn't want to play with the golden ball either, but prefers to play football. When the ball falls into a mud hole and Jessica cries, Josh, the Frog King's great-great-great-great-grandson, appears and comforts her. Josh is also sad because he can't go to the bog bubble party because of the dangerous traffic. Jessica wants to help Josh and so they set off on an adventure together.

From the bestselling author of «My wonderful bookstore». Moving to a dreary country town turns into an animal protection thriller about the brave twins Martha & Mischa and their quirky parents.

Twins Martha and Mischa are completely different. But when their parents inform them without warning that they will be trading big city life for an old creepy house in some barren backwater in the middle of nowhere, they agree for once: it's a disaster! But at latest when an eerie wolf howl emanates from the forest, the summer vacation turns into an exciting animal protection thriller.

A shady egg dealer provides the next adventure. The twins Martha & Mischa and their friends have a new case.

The twins Martha and Mischa have settled down in the small village Krähfeld, spend their free time best with dog Jip and their clique, the „Glorious Seven“. The first day at the new school is approaching, and as if that wasn't excitement enough, the next case is already on the horizon. When Martha goes shopping with her father at the weekly market, Jip growls at an egg seller who advertises the „happiest chickens far and wide“ and calls his eggs „Happy Eggs“. Behind the scenes, however, something seems to be very fishy... Martha & Mischa quickly round up the gang and embark on an adventurous and not harmless investigation.

Outdoor pool, fries & dragons: The summer book for a good mood

What are dragons doing in a swimming pool? And who is this mysterious gecko man? The new adventure about the brave brother and sister again promises thrills, puzzles and lots of fun. Animal welfare meets action - with a pinch of humor.

24,5 x 27,5 cm, February 2024

When T-Rex & Co. shake up the museum, boredom is a thing of the past! A hilarious story for little dinosaur fans and anyone who wants to rediscover museums.

When five dinos stand at the bus stop ... it's dino excursion day! The dinos want to go to the museum, where they are supposed to be the superstars. But nothing goes as planned. They don't fit on any bus, they have to pay entry fee to the museum and then they have to be quiet. And why are there only Rexie's bones? The clumsy, loud and sniffing prehistoric giants refuse to give in and transform the museum walls into a living exhibition with their wild stories.

Children's Fiction (4+)

A wonderful story about the diversity of insects and the power of solidarity.

At the edge of the meadow, where the forest begins, lies the Beetle Café. It is hardly bigger than a mushroom. The plant juices and tree snacks taste so good here that even the ladybugs become vegetarians! But since the big metal beetles came and instead of the flower meadow next door there now is a big dumb human house, hardly anything is happening at the Beetle Café. The few beetles that still come here don't get along anymore. That has to change, decides Karli, the boss of the beetles. But how? Together with her regular guests, she plans a party to bring life back to the Café. But what does it take for a good beetle party? How can potato beetles and stag beetles get along again?

Wild Christmas

24 stories told by animals

104 pages, Leykam, 24 €

21,5 x 29 cm, September 2023

24 animals - from budgies to goldfish - tell how they would celebrate Christmas. Unusually good reading pleasure for Advent! Do bats, turtles and snails actually celebrate Christmas? And who really invented Christmas? 24 animals tell us what they do at Christmas and present some (quite offbeat) Christmas ideas. Only so much is revealed: the horse would like to celebrate with a unicorn and Mr. Octopus would be available as a Christmas tree imitator. In any case, one thing is clear: Christmas stories like this have certainly never existed before!
